

I oppose the proposed change to the rules relating to the ownership of radio stations, television stations, and other media that can be owned by one person. I believe that allowing one company to monopolize the media in a geographical area will limit the consumer to one "take" on the news and other information. Concentration of media ownership is bad for our democracy!